

Join Our Board

We need your skills, interest and commitment to the Arts on Bowen

The Hearth

As Bowen's arts council, The Hearth supports all forms of artistic expression by Bowen or visiting professional artists, aspiring youth and community groups either at The Hearth Gallery's beautiful, purpose-built space in the Cove Commons in Snug Cove or elsewhere on the island. When the new Community Centre is built, The Hearth will also be supporting artistic use of the performance space.

The Board - who we are looking for

The Board wants to increase both its numbers and the diversity of backgrounds, skills and experience of Board members. As an equity-seeking organization, The Hearth is committed to upholding the values of diversity, equality and inclusion and welcomes interest in joining the Board from any residents, both long standing and newcomer and particularly those with diverse backgrounds.

An artistic background is welcomed however it is not a prerequisite. One of our guiding principles is 'We are all artists here'.
